France

The NUJ is the world's largest journalists' union, with over 40 000 members in England, Scotland, Wales and Ireland - and active branches in Paris, Brussels and the Netherlands. It is affiliated to the TUC, and the GFTU in the UK. The NUJ is proud to be a part of the international labour movement and is affiliated to the International Federation of Journalists and the European Federation of Journalists. NUJ members subscribe to a Code of Conduct by which they agree to produce no material likely to lead to hatred or discrimination on the grounds of age, gender, race, colour, creed, legal status, disability, marital status, or sexual orientation.

Freelance photographer for the last 5 years, I left behind my studies as a marketing major in Paris, France to move to Australia, where I learned my trade. Parallel to my personal and artistic projects, I work as a professional documentary photographer in the areas of travel, sports, art and social issues. In the recent past, I have worked as a photographer for Handisports and covered the Paralympics in Beijing. My print work is also augmented by several projects which are currently being developed as web documentaries.
