Journalist
Hungary

The www.sosinet.hu is publishing all my works, but other websites use it as a unique source for news about Roma community created by Roma journalists.

I came from Borsod, which is the poorest part of Hungary. I work in the media since 2001, writing at the beginning, later I switched to making videos. I made many interviews and reports about the situation of Roma, they were mainly published in Népszabadság, HVG, MTV and on popular web sites. It's very important for me to create a more positive image about Roma people and reduce prejudices and disadvantages against them.
