I was born and grew up in Kardzhali. This is a multicultural town, where Christians and Muslims live together. My first job was there, as sport reporter for the largest local newspaper. Then I moved to Bourgas, where finished my bachelor Journalism education. After that I went to Sofia and started working for the newspaper of the Bulgarian Constructors Chamber, named "Stroitel". Meanwhile I found my place in Confederation of labour "Podkrepa" and became member of the Board of Union of Journalists in Bulgaria. My personal interests are in journalism, sports and politics.
