Spain

Periodistas de CCOO claim a space and professional action in defense of the quality of information and labor and professional rights of journalists. Periodistas de CCOO want our voices heard in society, in the university sector and the media. Periodistas de CCOO coordinate Journalists from all professional fields, in a protest space at a time of crisis communications companies are exploiting to justify downsizing and social and economic rights trim consolidated through years of struggle of several generations of workers. We are attentive to the movements taking place in the sector, the new citizen journalism, the introduction of multimedia journalist, to anything that might affect our work and our future. Defend the public service nature of public broadcasting services. And we're always next to the most vulnerable sector: forced employees and temporary employees. To do this, we work with the unions and journalists of the IFJ, of which we are members, developing campaigns and coordinated actions that make visible the situations that journalists suffer and also promote alternatives. We also work together with other professional organizations and trade unions of journalists, creating unity and claim spaces also serve in our struggle for professional recognition and labor.
