

MARS – MEDIA AGAINST RACISM IN SPORT

Media, Diversity & Racism in Sport

NATIONAL MEDIA ENCOUNTER

Cross-Production for Inclusive Media Coverage

VENUE & DATES Berlin (Germany) 6.– 9. July 2012

RBB – Rundfunk Berlin-Brandenburg
Konferenzraum (14th floor)
Fernsehsendezentrum
Masurenallee 8-14
14057 Berlin / Germany

REGISTRATION Deadline for Preregistration - 1 June 2012
Deadline for Registration - 15 June 2012

BACKGROUND In Europe, only a quarter of news subjects are women, even though they account for over half of the European population (GMMP, 2010)! While immigrants represent around 10% of the EU population (Eurostat, 2011) migrants and ethnic minorities represent less than 5% of the main actors in the news in Europe (Ter Wal, 2004). Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual and Transgender (LGBT) people represent roughly 6% of the population of the United Kingdom but account for less than 1% of the population seen on TV. 20% of the British population is disabled but less than 1% is represented in British TV (CDN 2009-10 Progress Report).

Through the sources they use, the subjects they select and the treatment they choose, the media influence the agenda (what to think about) and public perception (how to think) of contemporary debates. This is why the Council of Europe considers truly inclusive information - where everyone can participate as witnesses, players, producers etc. - to be crucial for social cohesion and democratic participation. But today, too many people are still excluded from public debates!

The new MARS - Media against racism in sport – EU / CoE joint programme chooses to focus, though not exclusively, on sport because it is considered as an important area for building social cohesion as it is also a major sector of investment in the media industry. However, sport media coverage does not reflect social and cultural diversity and does not ensure equity for all. Only 5% of press articles cover cultural and social aspects of sport; 40% of all sport articles refer to only one source and 20% refer to no sources at all; female athletes have four times more chances to be covered by a female journalist rather than a male one but less than 5% of sport news and stories are made by female journalists (Play the Game, 2005)!

MARS - Media Against Racism in Sport

Funded by the European Union and the Council of Europe

EUROPEAN UNION

COUNCIL OF EUROPE
CONSEIL DE L'EUROPE

Implemented
by the Council of Europe

Building upon standards set by various Council of Europe bodies on media pluralism, expression of diversity and non discrimination and the outcome of the 2008-10 CoE's antidiscrimination Campaign, the MARS – Media against racism in sport – EU / CoE joint programme aims at considering non discrimination and expression of diversity as an ongoing angle of media coverage. Through this approach applied to sport coverage, MARS wants to encourage innovative modes of media production that could be reproduced in all media sectors and used by any form of media coverage.

In achieving these outcomes, the MARS programme offers media professionals (journalism students and trainers, journalists, media managers, etc.) to participate in various activities, in particular National Media Encounters to explore the possibilities of developing ways of producing truly inclusive media contents.

OBJECTIVES

To encourage, by organising national media encounters, pairings of media professionals with a view to co-produce and co-disseminate high-quality and professional written or audiovisual media reports on sports' issues, even if not exclusively, including non-discrimination and expression of diversity as an angle of media coverage,

To raise awareness among media professionals, via their own co-production and co-distribution ventures, of possible innovative modes of production of truly inclusive media contents that contribute to foster mutual understanding,

To contribute to the development of local and national networks of media professionals for inclusive media coverage to enrich media contents while ensuring that everyone participates in public and democratic debates.

CONTENT

Production and dissemination of media cross-reports on sport considered as a global issue, even if not exclusively, made by a pair of media professionals, including non-discrimination and expression of diversity as an angle of media coverage, focusing more particularly on how intercultural and inclusive media contents contribute to reduce prejudices, to fight against discrimination and to foster mutual understanding.

These media encounters will focus on professional practices. Participants will therefore be asked to produce, by pair or trio, a report offering different perspectives on the above-mentioned topics. The way the subjects dealt with in these reports must reflect their local and national dimensions.

Based on concrete production activity, these encounters should give media professionals a better understanding of the benefits that everyone can derive from the formation of partnerships at local and national level between media professionals in order to contribute to intercultural dialogue, expression of diversity and non-discrimination. Lastly, participants are asked to disseminate their report in their own media or a media of their choice and in the country in which the encounter is implemented.

As well as permitting comparison of professional practices, the purpose of these encounters is to enable public opinion to see and hear a different way of expressing the diversity that exists in today's European societies. In addition to the media professionals involved in the initiative, the programme will include a session open to the national press at which the reports and the conclusions of each encounter will be presented, in order to ensure coverage of the broad issues in relation to intercultural dialogue, expression of diversity and non discrimination.
